Note:

Those vehicles described above as "fitted " are for departments directly subordinate to the Verwaltung fuer Kraftfahrzeuge, and those classed "unfitted" are for other departments who will build into them the machinery necessary for the specific task for which they will be employed.

3. Armored Scout Cars for the KVP:

On 23 October 1953, a prototype of an armored scout car was inspected at the Headquarters of the KVP; the body of this prototype was made by the Research and Development Department, Chemnitz, out of cardboard. The result of this inspection has not been disclosed, but once the scout car is approved, 165 vehicles will be produced.

4. New Coordination Department:

A new Coordination Department has been established on the staff of Major General Hoffmann. This Department, which will be under the control of Lieutenant-Colonel Wenzel, will organize supplies for the three Volkspolizei services, Army, Air and Navy.
